

Music. Movement. Mentorship.

A CITYWIDE LINE DANCE-A-THON

Event Date: Saturday, July 18, 2026 | 11am – 4pm

WrightChoice Mentoring is hosting a Citywide Line Dance-A-Thon, a high-energy, community-powered fundraiser bringing together 300–500 participants to dance, connect, and give back.

This experience goes beyond fundraising—promoting physical health, mental well-being, and community connection—while raising critical funds to expand access to mentorship and career pathways.

The event will also support partner organizations committed to strengthening youth, families, and communities.

Mentoring
Connect • Inspire • Level Up!

The Citywide Line Dance-A-Thon is more than an event – it's a movement. Through music and shared experience, we are creating access to mentorship, opening doors to career pathways, and investing in the future of our community. Your sponsorship helps ensure that young people have the guidance, exposure, and support needed to thrive.

TyKiah Wright Wilson

is an accomplished leader, speaker, facilitator, and published author with more than 20 years of impact-driven leadership locally and nationally. As the Founder and CEO of WrightChoice Mentoring, she has dedicated her career to empowering students and young adults through mentorship, workforce development, career exploration, and transformative leadership experiences.

Through WrightChoice Mentoring, TyKiah has created innovative programs that connect students to mentors, internships, professional development, and career pathways in industries including law, healthcare, STEM, business, and entrepreneurship. Her work has impacted countless students, helping them build confidence, connections, and clarity for their futures. Her leadership and service earned her an appointment by President Barack Obama to serve on the White House Commission on Educational Excellence for African Americans, where she helped advance national conversations around education and access.

TyKiah is also a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and was recognized as a 2016 YWCA Woman of Achievement for her leadership, advocacy, and commitment to uplifting communities.

In addition to her nonprofit leadership, TyKiah is a dynamic keynote speaker and facilitator who has presented for corporations, universities, nonprofits, government agencies, and community organizations across the country. She is also the author of the memoir From Where I Sit, which shares her journey of resilience, leadership, advocacy, and redefining possibilities through the lens of living with a disability.
